*Multipure requires the Social Security Number (SSN) or Federal Tax Identification Number of Independent Distributor enrollees solely for identification and tax purposes. Your payment information and SSN are never shared for any reason with any outside third party unless required by law. Multipure reserves the right to withhold commission payments from any Distributor who provides false information or who fails or refuses to provide required information.

A Multipure Distributor may modify his or her existing Distributor agreement (e.g., change a SSN to a Federal Tax ID Number, add a spouse or partner to the account, or change the form of ownership from an individual to a business-owned Distributorship) by submitting a written request, including a new Distributor Agreement and a Business Registration Form, if applicable. Forms must include fresh signatures ("crossed out" or "whiteout" versions of the agreement are not acceptable) and any appropriate supporting documentation.
